Kiwanis of Laurel Hosts Trail Run at Big Creek Water Park

Exercise, breathe fresh air and enjoy the beauty of the 200 acre lake at the Big Creek Water Park with a morning run on Saturday, May 11. Kiwanis Club of Laurel is hosting a 5 Mile Trail Run and a 2 Mile Run/Walk at the Big Creek Water Park off of Highway 84 west of Laurel. The wide trail hugs the lake for over half the distance and winds in and out of tall pines and large hardwoods.

Registration will begin at 7 a.m. with the events beginning at 8 a.m. Registration in advance is $20 for adults and $15 for students or Pine Belt Pacers; registration the day of the event is $25 per person. Each participant, who preregisters, will receive a t-shirt and a small gift for participating.

Awards will be presented to the overall, master and grand master finishers in both male and female categories. Age group awards will be given also.

The registration form is available at www.pinebeltpacers.org or by contacting Stan Pickering at 601-498-5480 or stan.pickering@yahoo.com or Stan Riles at 601-426-3562 or sriles@bellsouth.net

The proceeds from the run will benefit the children of the Laurel/Jones County community through the work of the Kiwanis Club of Laurel.
